"SO WONDERFUL IN WHITE"

A Play in Three Acts

Many changes have taken place at Massillon City Hospital and the School of Nursing during the past year. This was characterized by changes in the curriculum, activities, faculty, student lounge, hospital personnel, and finally within ourselves.

The yearbook staff takes great pride in presenting "So Wonderful in White", a play in three acts.

We hope our efforts will help you relive with us our activities of 1963.

Dedication ...

With you we have acquired a more mature and meaningful outlook on life and our chosen profession. In our struggles, you were strong; in our failures, you were steadfast; and in our achievement, you are victorious. For your untiring efforts on our behalf, and for the major role you have played in our preparation for the future, we, the Class of 1963, proudly and with deepest gratitude, dedicate this year's edition of the Caducean to you, OUR PARENTS.

In Memorium

MRS. MIRIAM VEITCH, R.N.

We have chosen Mrs. Veitch's graduation picture for this page as to us she was always young, always enthusiastic and always a student at heart. Through her patience and diligent work, her contagious sense of humor and her sincere interest in each student we have received a bit of herself into us which has helped us become better nurses. She was so ready and willing to assist each one of us whether it be on a nursing procedure or a personal problem. What a source of encouragement she was for us as she gave credit where credit was due and help when it was needed. Mrs. Veitch was a nurse among nurses and her greatest lessons were given to us by her example. Her high standards and personal interest in her patients will long be remembered by many — patients, students and friends. It is difficult to express human gratitude but in our hearts is a prayer that God will reward her a hundredfold for all she has done for us

Her Students

*Lives of great men will remind us,
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing leave behind us
Footsteps on the sands of time.*

—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

RUEBEN W. CROYLE, M.D.

Loved and admired by all who knew him for his fine work, generous ways and intricate sense of humor.

Behind the Scenes

Every play requires work behind the scenes. We have delegated this portion of our presentation to those activities which we feel were our "rehearsals". The following section portrays the honors, activities, and associations which have helped us throughout the past three years.

STARS.....

Sharing the honor with Miss Caducean, these seniors also are recognized for exemplifying such high standards and service in their profession and their school.

Religious Activities

Bible

Officers serve for a three month period. This allows for new ideas and plans for interesting programs.

Throughout the year at Massillon City Hospital, students of various religious denominations meet weekly to study and share many sacred moments.

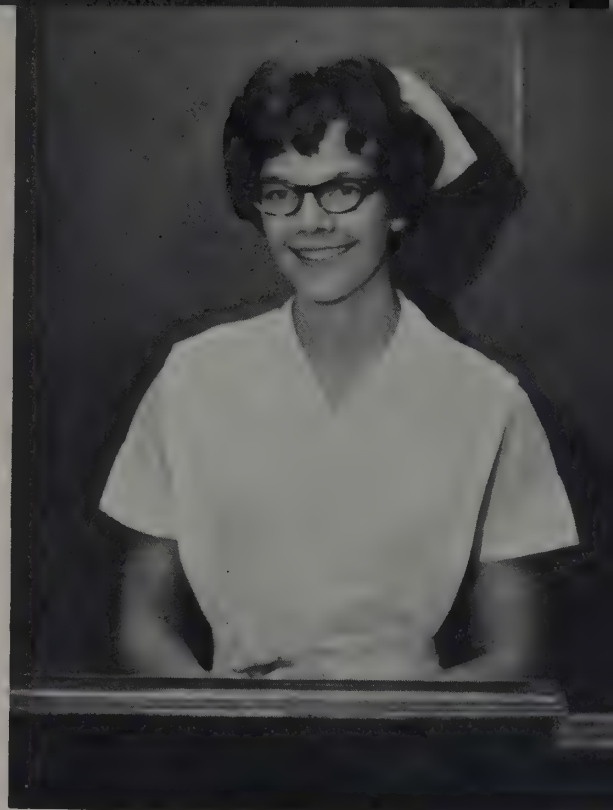

Students gather in the chapel for inspirational meditation.

MISS STUDENT NURSE

The title of Miss Student Nurse of Massillon City Hospital is bestowed upon the outstanding junior student nurse each year, who best exemplifies the qualities of scholastic achievement, leadership, dependability and pleasing personality. We proudly salute you, Miss Wanda Finnicum, as our Miss Student Nurse. Congratulations!

Honor Society

Following successful completion of the Freshman, Junior and Senior year, members of the honor society are selected by the faculty and awarded a blue and gold honor pin to wear on their uniform. The members are selected on the basis of their scholastic achievement, clinical performance, leadership, dependability, poise, loyalty and contributions to their school, profession, hospital, church community. Congratulations Miss Delores Hall, Miss Lynn Fisher, Miss Anne Weinrich and Miss Wanda Finnicum (not pictured).

On Location

(Affiliations)

The months spent on affiliation were dispersed throughout the past three years. These months will be remembered by all of us with mixed emotions. We can all truthfully say, however, that they were an aid to our professional growth and development.

University of Akron, Student Center

Many memorable hours were spent on the campus of Akron "U" during the first nine months of our education. Here we gained the foundation for the basic nursing sciences by studying courses in anatomy and physiology, chemistry, microbiology, foods and nutrition, psychology, sociology and English. Many relaxing moments were spent by each student in the student center on campus.

Allman Hall

Massillon State Hospital

After three months of psychiatric nursing we all gained a better insight into the complexity of mental illness. Our understanding was aided by the doctors lectures, classes and application of psychiatric nursing procedures. Among our vivid memories of "State" are electric shock therapy, long walks . . . to work and keys . . . keys . . . keys

Akron Children's Hospital

Our pediatric nursing education was developed during the three months spent at the modernly equipped Akron Children's Hospital. We shall long remember the new experiences encountered, such as, "Growth and Development", apartment living, ten to seven shift, play therapy, more and more orthopedics and burns . . . burns . . . burns

the Play's the Thing

In presenting our Three Act Play, we give credit to each class in presenting their act. We review the beginning of our education and the attainment of our first three milestones. It is hoped that in later years all will, each in their own way, recall their role in each of these acts.

FRESHMEN CLASS

On September 10, 1962 thirty-three starry-eyed freshmen began their nursing education. Our first week was spent in orientation to the school of nursing and Akron University. After nine months of clinical experience, studying, exams and sleepless nights, we reached our first milestone. June 7, 1963 saw twenty-nine proud freshmen receive the privilege of wearing the cap of our school. Our main projects were making hard tack for the Christmas Bazaar, the Freshmen Feast, bakesales and a concluding skating party.

JUNIOR CLASS

This year's Junior class started its activities by welcoming the new freshmen in September. We were as busy as beavers making and selling peanut brittle at Christmas,

We began Medical-Surgical Nursing and encountered our first case studies. Afternoon and night experiences were also new to us.

Our class separated in March for affiliations and in July our first group went to Highland View Rehabilitation Hospital.

We are now looking forward to our black bands and the distinction of being seniors.

SENIOR CLASS

It was a hot, sunny day on September 11, 1960 when thirty-four girls entered the doors of Howenstine Home. Excitement could be felt within each one of us as we became acquainted with each other, our big sisters, and the faculty. The orientation to Massillon City Hospital and Akron University soon became our routine and before we knew it, we were Juniors with a new white cap to cherish.

Affiliations carried us into a new period. The period of time when we were recognized and proud to bear the title of "Senior", and wear the black band with a feeling of anticipation. The year of the Senior, full of team leading, IV Therapy, Emergency Room, care studies, strawberry festivals, pictures, and uniforms is all over. Graduation is attainment of our goal. Yet, new goals will lie ahead on this road we will now follow.

With September 11, 1960, we entered to learn. Now with the knowledge attained, it is time to depart. We are departing to serve with not only our minds and hands, but with the deepest essential part of ourselves we can give — our hearts.

Mamie Lee Arrington

Can be found sleeping with her eyes open. Often heard saying, "Don't bother me, my nerves are bad." Walks with her head held high and a twinkle in her eye. Known for saying what she thinks and is ready and able to express her opinions.

Ambition: To become Mrs. Clinton Bodiford.

Bonnie Lou Bendure

Known for her quietness, neatness, being able to sleep at any time, tolerating her roommate, and raising poultry in her closet. Proud of her adopted Daddy and can be found hot-rodding around in her '58 Chevy. Possesses a good sense of humor and is liked by everyone. Likes boys, food, boys, cars, boys. . .

Ambition: To do post-graduate work in surgery.

Karin Lynn Borway

Quiet at times but the wheels are always clicking. Known for her frequent trips to Akron and Red Hair. She is always willing to listen and tries to help. Her philosophy is "if you can't say something nice don't say anything at all." . . . Usually! Has knitted more sweaters than any senior.

Ambition: Ohio State University

Kyra Bessie Brenneman

We called her "BoodDock Bess" because she lives in the country. The men in her life have been many including five boys at home. Although diets and green crayons are her hobbies, she would give them up for a one way ticket to a certain missile base in Texas. No matter what her ups and downs, she will never be defeated because she is a girl who knows how and willingly gives her heart.

Ambition: To go to Texas.

Charlene Mae Eicher

A friend to everyone at all times. Likes to converse with others at all hours — even if she doesn't remember. Enjoys sewing, swimming, new cars, eating, and lots of new experiences. Is known throughout the dorm by a characteristic laugh and for trimming her classmates' hair. Loyalty, dependability, charm, humor, and poise are outstanding characteristics that contribute to her vivacious personality.

Ambition: To enjoy life to the fullest degree of happiness.

Davina J. Gosnell

Known for her frequent trips to and from Pittsburgh. Could be found stewing over our class problems, and burning the midnight oil. Finally 'learned to drink coffee. Likes the piano and long walks. Quiet but with occasional loud explosions. Was heard saying "you don't have to make such a big issue out of it!"

Ambition: B.S. degree.

Lynda Seretha Herring

Neat, sweet, and longs to be petite. Known as "Serethy". Can usually be heard saying, "Scratch my back". Makes frequent trips to Columbus, and leaves her heart there every time. Loves writting letters, wearing bows in her hair, and taking driver's tests. Nearly had to leave school to go to jail.

Ambition: Set up housekeeping in the big 'C'.

Beverly Ruth Johnson

Usually seen with a warm, cheerful smile, but advance with care when the smile is gone. Known for her willingness to help others, her Corvair and her very unique questions. Say, just how do the stupes keep the hot water bottle hot?

Ambition: To graduate.

Sandra Lou MacKenzie

Can be found sleeping or on the phone. Often heard saying, "Who's the phone for?" Likes snoozes during class or any other time. Has gotten more drinks during class than any other senior. Owns the other share in the Pig Pen and can never find her other slipper. Is cheerful and always lends a helping hand.

Ambition: To stop volunteering for committees.

Patricia Ann Krause

Arizona, here she comes! Cheerful, always with a friendly smile, willing to lend a helpful hand. Likes diet pills, sunbathing and adjusting an IV for a certain doctor in OR. Can be heard asking "What's on TV tonight?" Has the youngest sibling in the Senior Class.

Ambition: To be a Pediatric Nurse in Arizona.

Delores Hall Marks

Quiet but always thinking — that's our "Sis". Known for talking in her sleep and getting up early on her days off. Found Public Health dangerous. Likes pretty clothes, cooking and Jerry. Changed Miss to Mrs. in June.

Ambition: To cross the Atlantic Ocean.

Georgia Ann Monbarren

Expert in measuring suture — too long. One of her chief problems is men complicated by rheumatic fever, has had 29 days in actual experience as to how the patient must feel. Frequently found worrying about things that really won't happen — Oh my, was that cigarette out? Enjoys reading, sewing, and cooking especially spaghetti for a gang.

Ambition: Many, among them men, money, clothes, and will power. Psychiatric nursing also has its influence.

Jeanne Marie Paul

Always willing to listen to all. Well liked by all who know her. Tennis, volleyball, softball, anyone? Even-tempered Jeanne was in the hospital as a patient and a student.

Ambition: To stay healthy and stop taking pills.

Marlene Marie Parker

She may be found on a horse, under the water, or behind a skunk. Consideration and kindness to others are only two of her fine characteristics. Believes in promptness for piano lessons — no matter what!!

Ambition: Ohio State University.

Marlene Sue Poling

Small but mighty — in more ways than one. Known for her cheery smile, lending hand, neat room(?) and clothes hamper behind the door. Frequently goes to Pick's and makes posters. Likes thin fudge, Poppy, sewing and a certain Malone student. A ready listener to other's problems but not to the alarm clock.

Ambition: To become a Mrs. in the next ten years.

Darleen Carol Rice

Enjoys having a good time, and is usually found having one. A cheerful smile and friendly manner. She enjoys nice clothes and always looks her best. Can often be found rendering beautician services to friends. May put off until tomorrow what should have been done yesterday. Never worries about calories and helps everyone else to forget them by making such good chip dip. Often says, "I'm starved, and something chocolate will help."

Ambition: To become Mrs. Claypoole, Public Health Nurse.

Emma Lou Simmers

A girl who is very stable on her feet, especially on ice. Always quiet!?! and can be heard saying "you know and stuff". Is the grandmother of the class. Wears the latest style in which to sunbathe — pajamas. Can be found dancing to the stripper and bouncing on the floor.

Ambition: To find her ambition.

Deanna Marie Ross

Smiling cheerful and a real angel of mercy with a gleam of mischief in her eyes. Enjoys giving Dreft baths. Owns more Brides' Books than the publishers. Can be heard mumbling, "I'm getting tired of being tired." Likes Dave, Sophie, and food, food, food.

Ambition: To be the first one married — after graduation.

Judith Stringer Smitley

Friendly and humorous and into everything. Always reorganizing something back to its original organization. Likes to play solitaire, write letters to a man in blue, and watch cars in the parking lot at 3 a.m. Can be found in the hall with a red face or up wandering around at night.

Ambition: Raise a lot of little Smitleys . . . in a few years!

Rosalie Elaine Smith

Is usually first in the chow line. Can be heard saying, "that's okay Mertyle!" Owns part stock in a Pig Pen and can usually be found having a good time. Likes front rooms and to know what's going on.

Ambition: To get the annual published!

Esther Anne Weinrich

Little but mighty. Likes sleeping after work, parties, shoe sales, Bill, and Susie. She once made a graceful exit down the Palace Theater steps and has since been known as Miss Co-Ordination. Probably is the only one in the class to know what Mallox tastes like.

Ambition: To be Mrs. Wittman.

Dee, Sandy and Bon find that "the best" way to learn all those surgical instruments was to work with them.

Karin, Kyra and Mamie review some agencies associated with the Visiting Nurse Society.

Anne, Marlene, Emma and Rosalie find there is more to OB than mothers and babies.

Dress Rehearsal for Seniors

Bev and Sis have returned to 242 to escort Georgia and Jeanne to class.

Dar, Marlene and Lynda try to plan a balanced diet.

Judy, Charlene, Davina and Pat share some of our references.

Credits

"Give credit where credit is due." While presenting our play, we received much encouragement from our faculty, administrators and physicians. Although we are presenting these people at the close of the play, they are far from being forgotten.

Stage Crew...

We, the Caducean Staff, present to you the 1963 edition of the Massillon City Hospital Yearbook. The co-operation and endless effort displayed by all and especially our advisor, Mrs. McConnell, have made this production possible. We thank all of you and hope that this book will be enjoyed and cherished now and in the future.

Massillon City Hospital is proud of the School of Nursing and its many graduates. We are pleased that we have had a part in the education of so many people and believe that these fine nurses bring honor to their Alma Mater as they accept the responsibilities of their profession and assume their place as citizens in this great country. We know that the ideals of the hospital and school will always burn bright in your memory. We sincerely believe, as the Master taught, that the healing of the sick is the highest human endeavor. Our best congratulations and good wishes go with each of you wherever the path of life leads you to service.

Set Directors & Supervisors

An unknown author has written: "I am education. I bear the torch that lightens the world, fires the imagination of men, feeds the flame of genius. I give wings to dreams, and might to hand and brain. I am the parent of progress, molder of destiny. I banish ignorance; and science and art are the work of my hands.

"The school is my workshop; here I stir ambitions, stimulate ideals, forge the keys that open the doors to opportunity. I am the source of inspiration. I am irresistible power. I am education."

You, the Class of 1963, are preparing to leave this workshop, and enter the ranks of the professional nurse. You will use what education has given you. If you suffer and know tragedy, you will also experience the grandeur of human life. You will wonder in the face of life's unexplained mysteries and its infinite possibilities.

You enter a field that is changing constantly. Developments in modern medicine create a daily challenge. Our profession needs the calibre of nurse who can meet this changing, growing time. To stand still is to retreat.

Someone has said that he who works with his hands is a laborer. He who works with his mind and his hands is a craftsman. He who works with his hands, his mind, and his heart is an artist.

You may be artists in the field of nursing. The finest gift you can give to your time is the gift of a creative life.

Congratulations to the members of the graduating Class of 1963 for the successful completion of your basic nursing program. During the past three years each of you have shown that you possess the qualities needed for success in the practice of nursing. It is the expectation of the faculty that you will continuously seek to improve your knowledge, understanding, and skill in the art and science of nursing in order to better serve society. It is also our hope that your thoughtful aspirations for the future will become realities and that you will feel the inner glow of satisfaction in your expression of humanitarianism.

Fifty Years.....

Our School of Nursing was organized in 1909 and opened its doors to students in January, 1910, with six students in the first class. Since then 669 students have been graduated and the present enrollment is 86 students. In 1953, the school became coeducational and in 1956, the first male student was graduated.

The school was originally located in The Russell Home. In 1948, the Howenstine Home became the center of our educational facilities.

We have seen an improvement in learning situations, work standards and a change of the uniform from detachable collars and cuffs and separate aprons to one piece and to the present two piece style.

The School has been affiliated with a college since 1944. The present program with the University of Akron has been in effect since 1953.

We, the class of 1963 are very proud to be the 50th graduating class from this fine School.

Miss Martha Spiker and Mrs. Martha Jones consult one another on school matters, requiring secretarial services.
